Parity in pension for retired Government employees

2791. PROF. C LAKSHMANNA : Will ihe PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government attention has been drawn to report appearing PENSIONERS ADVOCATE, Madras in its June 1988 issue on page 3 under the title "SCOVA MEETING" on May 24, 1988, wherein it has been stated that Government have agreed to parity in pensions in principle but parity in pensions in priniple but could not implement for want of finances; and

(b) if so, what steps Government propose to extend the same to both civilian and military pensioners/family pensioners, as was done in the cases of retired judges of High Courts and the Supreme Court ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. CHIDAMABARAM) : (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The expression "parity in Pension" refers to equalisation of pension irrespective of the date of retirement i.e. whatever pension will be due to a person retired from a given grade today should be allowed to past retirees also from the same grade, irrespective of their dates of retirement and the emoluments drawn at the time of retirement. Government has not at any stage agreed to this parity in pension irrespective of the date of retirement in the case of Central Government employees, both on the civilian side as well as in the Armed Forces, even in principle. The reported version appearing in the "PENSIONERS ADVOCATE" in its June, 1988 Issue, is a non-official version and has been cited out of context. The case of retired judges of the High Courts and the Supreme Court stands entirely on a different footing and cannot be taken as a precedent for purposes of parity in pension for Central Government employees.
